St. James's, January 25.

THE following Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Biſhops, and Clergy, of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation aſſembled, was this Day preſented to His Majeſty by His Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

Moſt gracious Sovereign

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Archbiſhop Biſhops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation aſſembled, moſt gladly embrace the Opportunity now afforded us of renewing, in this our collective Capacity, our warmeſt and ſincereſt Profeſſions of Allegiance Fidelity and Affection to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government.

We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we are penetrated with the deepeſt Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Reign, The Proofs your Majeſty has given of your truly parental Care and Tenderneſs for your Subjects are too many to be enumerated. But as Miniſters of the Goſpel of Peace, we hold ourſelves more eſpecially bound to expreſs our ſincereſt Thanks to your Majeſty, for your unwearied and ſucceſsful Endeavours, during a long Courſe of Years to prevent the needleſs Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood; and (in perfect Conſiſtency with the Dignity of your Crown, and the true Intereſts of your Kingdom) to eſtabliſh Peace and Tranquillity in every Part of Europe: a Conduct no leſs conſonant to the Maxims of ſound Policy, than to the Dictates of Humanity, and the benevolent Temper of our moſt Holy Religion.

Thoſe gracious Declarations your Majeſty has ſo frequently made and ſo religiouſly obſerved, that you will ſupport the Church of England as it is now by Law eſtabliſhed, demand from us our moſt grateful Acknowledgements; and leave us no Room to doubt the Continuance of the ſame Royal Favour and Protection, which we have hitherto experienced. Permit us, Sir, on this Occaſion, in all Humility to ſay, that the Eccleſiaſtical Part of our Conſtitution is no leſs excellent than the Civil; and that they are ſo cloſely and intimately blended with each other, that, as Experience has ſhewn, they muſt ſtand or fall together.

It might naturally be expected that a People thus favoured by Providence would demonſtrate their Gratitude by their diſtinguiſhed Goodneſs. But Truth obliges us to own to your Majeſty, that the Sanctity and Purity of their Manners do by no Means correſpond to the Advantages they poſſeſs. With infinite Concern we obſerve that a ſtrange Licentiouſneſs both of Sentiment and Conduct, a Spirit of frivolous Diſſipation and ruinous Profuſion, of Diſrepect to Superiors, and Contempt of lawful Authority, have made an alarming Progreſs in this Nation, and preſent a very gloomy Proſpect to every ſerious and conſiderate Mind.

We are fully ſenſible that much depends on the Labours of the Clergy in oppoſing to theſe Evils the powerful Operation of religious Principles: And we do faithfully promiſe your Majeſty that we will exert our utmoſt Efforts for this Purpoſe; by redoubling our Diligence in the Diſcharge of our ſacred Functions, by keeping the ſtricteſt Guard on our own Lives and Converſations, by carefully teaching the true genuine Doctrines of the Goſpel, and impreſſing forcibly on the Minds of our Hearers the great practical Duties of Chriſtianity, which are no leſs beneficial to Society than neceſſary to Salvation.

To theſe our earneſt Endeavours in the Cauſe of Morality and Religion, we ſhall conſtantly add our moſt fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that He would be pleaſed to crown with Succeſs all your Majeſty's Deſigns and Undertakings for the Welfare of your extenſive Dominions: that as He has bleſſed Your Majeſty with a numerous Progeny, He may vouchſafe You the ſtill greater Comfort of ſeeing them copy the bright Example of their Royal Parents; and that in this, and every other Inſtance, He may render your Majeſty's Life as happy to Yourſelf, as it is dear and important to your People.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this very dutiful and affectionate Addreſs.

It is with the deepeſt Concern I am informed that Vice and Contempt of lawful Authority continue ſo univerſally to prevail. Your ſtrenuous Endeavours to diſcourage this pernicious Tendency to Irreligion are highly acceptable to Me, and will always meet with My Support and Protection. I have nothing more at Heart than to maintain the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed, as well as the Religious and Civil Rights of all My People.

Florence, January 10. On the 4th at Night the Elector Palatine arrived here; the Great Duke had ſent a Gentleman of his Bedchamber to meet his Highneſs on the Confines, with Offers to lodge him, but the Elector declined accepting any Public Honours; the next Morning the Great Duke made his Highneſs the firſt Viſit, which the Elector immediately returned, and afterwards dined at Court; the next Day the Elector was entertained by Prince Corſini, the Great Dutcheſs's Grand Maitre, to which the Foreign Miniſters and a numerous Company were invited. On Saturday Evening the Nobility gave his Electoral Highneſs a Ball in Maſk at their Caſino, at which the Great Duke was preſent. The following Evening the Great Duke entertained his Highneſs with a Ball in Maſk at the Great Theatre; and Yeſterday Morning the Elector ſet out for Venice.

Dublin, January 19.

Yeſterday being the Day appointed for celebrating Her Majeſty's Birth-day, the Flag was diſplayed on Bedford Tower, the Great Guns at the Salute-Battery in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks. At Noon there was a very numerous Aſſembly of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, of both Sexes, at the Caſtle, who appeared in great Splendor to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, before whom an Ode, ſet to Muſick, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies. And at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy throughout the City; and at the Caſtle the Ball and the ſeveral Entertainments were extremely grand, and conducted with the greateſt Regularity; and the Decorations of the Ball and Supper Room particularly elegant.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d Day of January, 1775,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was pleaſed, by His Order in Council of the 28th of October laſt, to direct, That no Horned Cattle, nor any Manner of Hides, Skins, Horns, Hoofs, or other Part of any Horned Cattle or Beaſt, nor any Hay, Straw, Litter, Fodder, or other Things which have been employed about infected Cattle, or the Hides or any other Part of ſuch Cattle, or have been in or near the Places where any ſuch Infection hath been, and are liable to retain the ſame, ſhould be imported from any Ports or other Places on the Coaſt of France, within the Diſtricts of Picardie, Normandie, Bretagne, Poictou, Guienne, and Gaſcogne, into the Kingdom of Great-Britain or Ireland, or any of the Iſlands or Dominions thereto belonging. And whereas Information hath been received, That the Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle in Gaſcogne hath ſpread itſelf into Languedoc.—His Majeſty doth therefore judge it proper to extend the aforementioned Prohibition, and accordingly, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby Order and Command, That no Horned Cattle, nor any Manner of Hides, Skins, Horns, Hoofs, or other Part of any Horned Cattle or Beaſt, nor any Hay, Straw, Litter, Fodder, or other Things which have been employed about infected Cattle, or the Hides or any other Part of ſuch Cattle, or have been in or near the Places where any ſuch Infection hath been, and are liable to retain the ſame, ſhall from henceforth be imported from any Ports or other Places on the Coaſt of France, within the Diſtricts aforementioned, or from any Ports or other Places within the Diſtricts of Languedoc and Provence, into the Kingdom of Great-Britain or Ireland, or any of the Iſlands or Dominions thereto belonging.—And His Majeſty doth further, with the Advice of His Privy Council, ſtrictly Charge and Command all Magiſtrates, Conſtables, Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, to ſtop and deſtroy the ſeveral Things ſo prohibited as aforeſaid, uſing and exerciſing in that Behalf the like Authority as any Officer or Officers have by any Law now in being in Caſes of prohibited and uncuſtomed Goods —And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, January 24, 1775.

IT is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, That all Officers belonging to His Majeſty's 17th Regiment of Light Dragoons, 35th, 49th, and 63d Regiments of Foot, now ſerving in Ireland, do immediately repair to their reſpective Corps in that Kingdom, except ſuch as may be employed in Ireland on the Recruiting Service.

ROCHFORD.

Marine Pay-Office, Great Newport-ſtreet, St. Martin's-Lane, January 28, 1775.

IN Purſuance of the Direction of the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, the Paymaſter of His Majeſty's Marine Forces hereby gives Notice, That on Wedneſday next, the 1ſt of February, will be iſſued, at this Office, Six Months Half-Pay, due to the Reduced Officers of the ſaid Forces, from the 1ſt of July to the 31ſt of December laſt, both Days inclusive.

Bank of England, January 21, 1775.

WHereas ſome falſe and ſcandalous Paragraphs have appeared this Day in The Morning Poſt and Gazetteer, concerning the Forgery of Bank Notes, it is thought highly neceſſary, to prevent Impoſition upon the Public, to ſtate the Fact.

Some Poſts ago, one Ten Pound Note arrived from Holland, which, upon firſt Sight, the Merchant it came to thought was a Forgery, and brought it to the Bank, but did not preſent it for Payment; ſince which ſome few more have appeared, all from the ſame Plate and ſame Value, the whole Amount being under Two Hundred Pounds. None have been paid at the Bank, nor can any Perſon converſant with Bank Notes be deceived by them.

General Post-Office, January 23, 1775.

THEODOSIUS Kimpland, Post-master of Barnstable in the County of Devon, stands charged upon Oath on a violent Suspicion of having feloniously stolen a Bill of Exchange out of a Letter sent by the Post, and has lately absconded.

He is a very young Man, of a small Size, wears his own dark brown Hair tied behind with a Ribbon, black Eye-brows, a round Face with a little Blush in the Cheeks, quickly reddens when spoke to, has rather a downish Look, and if he has had the Small-Pox, it was so favourably that little or no Appearance remains.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the said Theodosius Kimpland will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

Assurance-Office, Serjeant's Inn, Jan. 28, 1775.

A General Quarterly Court of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance-Office, will be held at their House in Serjeant's-Inn, Fleet-Street, on Thursday the 9th of February next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon.

LIFE ANNUITY.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Twelfth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for enabling the Lord Bishop of Durham and his Successors to raise a competent Sum of Money, to be applied for repairing, rebuilding, or improving, such Part of Tyne Bridge as belongs to the See of Durham, Notice is hereby given, that the Trustees named in the said Act intend to sell an Annuity of Thirty Pounds for any Life being of the Age of Forty Years or upwards, to the best Bidder, Regard being had to the Circumstances of Age and Health of the Nominee. And any Person desirous of purchasing such Annuity, may deliver in Proposals in Writing at the Chambers of Mr. Thomas Lloyd, in Holborn-court, Gray's-inn, signifying what he or she is willing to give for such Annuity, and the Age and Health of the proposed Annuitant.

N. B. The Annuities to be raised, pursuant to the abovementioned Act, are charged upon, and payable out of, the Rents, Revenues, and Profits, of the See of Durham.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Samuel Pechell, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, The Estates of William Adams, Esq; late of Upway in the County of Dorset, situate at and near Upway aforesaid. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Symond's-inn, Chancery-lane, London.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of Paul Gay, late of the Parish of St. George in the County of Middlesex, Sugar-refiner, deceased, are to come in and prove their Debts before Samuel Pechell, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's-Inn, Chancery-lane, London, on or before the 28th Day of February next, or in Default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors of John Jones, late of Warrington in the County of Lancaster, Innkeeper, deceased, are hereby requested to send an Account of their respective Demands to Messr. Turner and Kerfoot, of Warrington, on or before the 24th Day of February, 1775, in order that a final Dividend of his Effects may be made; which will be paid at any Time after that Day, upon their applying at the Office of the said Messr. Turner and Kerfoot, in Warrington aforesaid; and such Creditors as shall omit to send an Account of their Demands within the above Time will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Frederick Rider, of Angel-alley in the Parish of St. Mary Whitechapel in the County of Middlesex, Sugar-Refiner, are desired to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's Estate, on Tuesday next the 31st Day of January instant, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the George and Vulture Tavern in Cornhill, London, on special Affairs.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against John Pigott and James Purvis, of Adam-street in the Strand in the County of Middlesex, Bankers and Partners, and they being declared Bankrupts, are hereby required to surrender themselves to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 4th Day of February next at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, on the 16th Day of the same Month, and on the 11th Day of March following, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon on each of the said Days, at Guildhall, London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of their Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupts are required to finish their Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of their Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupts, or that have any of their Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Palmer, Attorney, in Coleman-street, London.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Thomas Shaylor, of Poplar, in the County of Middlesex, Taylor, Dealer, and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 4th and 11th Days of February next at Five in the Afternoon, and on the 11th Day of March following at Ten in the Forenoon, at Guildhall, London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Cocker, Attorney, in Stanhope-Street, Clare Market.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Edward Jeffereys otherwise Jeffreys, late of Long-acre in the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields in the County of Middlesex, now of the Parish of St. George the Martyr in the County of Surry, Dealer in Rum and Brandy, and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 30th Day of January instant at Ten in the Forenoon, on the 2d Day of February next at Five in the Afternoon, and on the 11th Day of March following at Ten in the Forenoon, at Guildhall, London, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Turner, in Tanfield-court in the Temple.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Harris, of Westham-abbey in the County of Essex, Callico-printer, Linen-printer, Dealer and Chapman, intend to meet on the 4th Day of March next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a Final Dividend of the Estate and Effects of the said Bankrupt; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend. And all Claims not then proved will be disallowed.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Savill, late of Threadneedle-street, London, Money-scrivener, intend to meet on the 18th of February next, at Ten in the Forenoon, at Guildhall, London, to make a Final Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend. And all Claims not then proved will be disallowed.
